

6516206133.txt

I've just learned that you're considering legislation that would prohibit satellite radio from providing local information such as weather and traffic updates. I cannot understand why the FCC would consider such proposterous legislation. why would you entertain eliminating a public service like this? These broadcasts provide great benefit to me as well as millions of other subscribers. Please do not consider this legislation.
Thankyou